

Under Construction

The Southeast Emergency Communication Center will be located in the Bedford Heights City Hall building lower level.

This is a partnership between Bedford Heights, Bedford, Garfield Heights and Maple Heights to create a regionalized 911 emergency center that will improve response time, EMS effectiveness and save hundreds of thousands of dollars over the next few years.

This $3 million project is being built with federal funds awarded from FEMA and Cuyahoga County.